REPUBLICANS HOLD TWO CONVENTIONS

the county executive committee to order at 11 o'clock in the county court room explaining that the committee was called for the purpose of selecting on who should be accredited delegates to the county convention at 2 o'clock.

He said that Faidro Gonzalez was an employe of the city and could not serve and the bounds of Joe Dunne's district had not been changed, so he is entitled to serve.

T. A. Falvey said: "We want a fair and square deal, and I suggest we wait for W. B. Edwards' stenographic notes on the proceedings."

Ware suggested that the meeting adjourn to the court room, as the county court room was crowded. P. F. Edwards said: "No one can hear anything there."

Some one in the crowd asked if the Republicans had adjourned upstairs. One said yes and Tom Lea said: "We don't want to follow in their tracks anyhow."

Bull arrived at 11:10 and Ware called the meeting to order. He declared the following to constitute the county executive committee:

D. D. Marshall, J. F. Kilburn, Benito Solis, B. A. Wilson, R. M. Reed, J. R. Donahue, V. P. Stiles, John M. Wyatt, S. J. Freudenrath, J. W. Gardner, M. W. Webb, J. M. Gonzalez, Seth Orndorff, H. B. Elliott, Eugenio Perez, J. S. Dougherty, L. R. Milligan, Jim Atkinson, Joe Spivey, W. C. Bulger, Pauline Armendariz, E. J. Hadlock, Gaspar Gilron, Charles Brown and Joe Dunne.

Falvey then said: "This is the committee named by you last week."

"Yes, sir," said Ware.

"Will you name by the other people?" asked Falvey.

"I will if they will furnish me with it," said Ware.

"I have it," said Ballard Coldwell. Judge Falvey made a lengthy argument on some of the past rulings of the chair and declared that these were inconsistent.

Ballard Coldwell thought so, too. "Finally," Falvey suggested that each faction go ahead with its work, "if you could fight it out, but don't care to," said Falvey. "Let the chair select his delegates, these are flags. Let us both go ahead."

Ware said that was his idea, too. "I overrule the objection in regard to Armendariz," Mr. Kemp then asked: "Will you recognize me as representing Mr. Brown by proxy?"

"I will if no one else holds it," said Ware. "I will take Mr. Kemp's word if it is easy for Mr. Brown to let it go."

Mr. Kemp then said: "I have never seen the proxy. I understand that Mr. Edwards, Mr. Pim and Mr. Hoffman have seen the proxy."

E. J. Edwards said: "I went to Mr. Brown and got the proxy last Saturday and brought it up with me."

Sheriff Edwards then brought a writ of injunction.

All Vote in Favor. Then Ware asked for the favoring of E. J. Hadlock's motion to admit Kemp to vote. All those present voted in favor.

Edwards then presented the injunction and Ware read it, saying: "Those of you who are here are bound by it if you so consider yourselves."

Ware said: "I recognize the committee appointed by me a week ago last Saturday."

Edwards asked: "Do you propose to refuse to recognize the others, the defendants in this action?"

"I do," said Ware.

"Do you propose to go ahead?" "I do," said Edwards. "You propose to violate the injunction?" "I don't think so after reading it," said Ware.

Falvey Creates Sensation. "You are not going ahead," said Falvey. "I am, or you are not," said Ware. Falvey opened his pocket knife and R. T. Neill took it away from him.

The Moore motion was made and if that injunction is valid, the defendants must answer only to the court.

"Well, we are here to see if it is not valid," said Ware. "If you pick out any one man and I will mix it up with him. Nobody offered to do so."

Ware continued: "I suggest that the committee adjourn for 10 minutes. Things have reached a stage to let them go on as they see fit in regard to the injunction."

Ballard Coldwell said: "It was understood this meeting that the defendants see no reason for an adjournment."

Tom Lea said: "Some of the defendants to the committee are not lawyers, but they have a right to recognize this injunction or not."

Ware Asks For Order. Ware asked for order. Joe Dunne, as a member of the committee, made a motion that the committee adjourn for 15 minutes to discuss the injunction. This was done.

The Defendants. The defendants in the injunction are W. B. Ware, Faustino Armendariz, J. F. Kilburn, Gaspar Gilron, Benito Solis, J. R. Donahue, V. P. Stiles, John M. Wyatt, S. J. Freudenrath, J. W. Gardner, M. W. Webb, J. M. Gonzalez, Seth Orndorff, H. B. Elliott, J. S. Dougherty, L. R. Milligan and Jim Atkinson.

Ware's writ was issued by Judge A. M. Walthall in the first district court requiring them to seat on the executive committee Lewis Gilbert, A. G. Durbach, Chas. Le Baron, Henry Welch, Ballard Coldwell, Robt. L. Holliday, W. W. Davis, M. H. Webb, E. R. Jones and James Conner.

Commanded to Recognize Plaintiffs. Ware, Armendariz and Gilron are commanded to recognize the plaintiffs as members of the executive committee and the other defendants are commanded to desist from attempting to act as members of such executive committee.

At 12:37 the committee returned from Judge Elyar's room, to which it had retired.

Refuses to Recognize Proxy. Robt. T. Neill offered a proxy from Henry Welch and Ware refused to recognize it.

Mary Kemp, in behalf of the plaintiffs in the petition, said: "We demand that you recognize us as members of the county executive committee."

Ware said: "I refuse to recognize you."

M. W. Stanton said: "We have a large committee and I move that we move to your office, Mr. Ware."

The plaintiffs in the petition demanded recognition, each in turn, and Ware refused to recognize them.

Ware said: "You will have to excuse me, the sheriff has arrested me."

Falvey moved an adjournment to 1 o'clock.

Ware Taken Before Judge. Ware was then taken before Judge Walthall in the first district courtroom.

The petition was then presented to Mr. Ware by Judge Walthall. It was written on stationery of the law firm of Turney & Burgess.

Ware said: "I will state this to the court. I have just been arrested and have not had time to study this. I would ask the court to give me time, say an hour, to study it."

E. J. Edwards said: "I will probably speak and I am willing to let him go on his personal recognizance if he will agree not to proceed with the meeting."

"I cannot agree on this," said Ware. "Then, put him under bond," said E. J. Edwards.

"You will not hold the convention?" said Walthall.

"I don't know," said Ware. "Then it is the court's duty to put him in jail," said Edwards.

Ware then went to sheriff Edwards, who asked him what he wanted to do. Ware said: "I want to see you."

Ware called the convention to order at 2:10 in the afternoon, saying: "I am glad to see you all here. The matter has arisen for which I do not believe I am to blame and the other parties do not think they are to blame."

YOUNG MOTHERS No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition.

ty of respectability, and has aligned with it many of the ablest and most patriotic men of the state. Due to his efforts the grangers and spoliators have been completely eliminated from the party government in Texas, and we pledge to him our support in the continuation of his policies, and hereby instruct our delegates to the state convention to support him for the position of delegate at large to the National convention and National committeeman from Texas.

MacGregor Is Condemned. Third: We condemn the policy of H. P. MacGregor, the Taft manager in Texas, in trying to cover the office holding element of the party in this state into the support of the administration, and especially do we condemn and resent the seeking to outstate of political carpet-baggers, who have no further interest in our party locally than to align it with some particular candidate. The Republicans of Texas are able to manage their own affairs and do not solicit the suggestions of said political write-pullers from other states, as to whom they will give their support.

Fourth: Believing that El Paso county should have one delegate to the National convention at Chicago on June 18, we hereby suggest the name of U. S. Stewart and instruct our delegates to the congressional convention, to be held in Sweetwater on May 18, to urge his candidacy, and to use all honorable means to secure his election as such delegate.

Robt. H. Rinehart, S. Engelke, H. H. Baum, W. H. Case, Colonel Lewis, J. M. Duran, Committee on resolution.

The Meeting Opens. Republican county chairman U. S. Goen called the convention to order at 10:15.

Secretary J. J. Ormsbee called the names of the delegates to the convention.

Precinct No. 1 was the only precinct not represented.

Goen called for the election of a temporary chairman and was himself unanimously elected chairman. Ormsbee unanimously elected secretary of the convention. Goen then declared a recess for two minutes.

Goen then announced that he would appoint the committee on credentials and permanent organization. J. A. Smith thought he was ahead of the convention and made a motion that he be authorized to do so. Goen said he did not need the motion, but accepted it.

Committees Are Named. The committee on credentials was named as follows: J. J. Ormsbee, chairman; C. M. McKinney, C. A. Kinchel, Dr. F. S. Cery, A. H. Anderson, C. W. Geiger, W. A. Anderson. The committee on permanent organization was composed of F. R. Stewart, chairman; M. C. McKinney, R. H. Sutherland, Maximo Aranda, W. H. Forbes, Dr. H. O. Darnall and B. O. Brautstrom. The former committee retired to the judge's room and the latter to the rear of the court room to deliberate.

First to return was the committee on credentials, which was out of the room for only three or four minutes and reported all the districts represented except the 1st and 2nd and 23d precincts. J. A. Smith, of precinct one, had come into the convention while the committee was out. J. A. Smith moved the adoption of the report. U. S. Goen seconded it and it was adopted.

Permanent Organization. Next the committee on permanent organization reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent and this was done unanimously.

Goen then explained that the purpose of the convention was to elect delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Sweetwater on May 18, and four delegates to the state convention at Fort Worth, May 23.

Appointed Two Committees. On motion of H. Baum, Goen then appointed two committees. The one on delegations was composed of S. Stewart, chairman; S. J. Freudenrath, Ed S. Keller, Dr. C. C. Young, J. Woodbury, John O. Wyler, and Chas. E. Loomis.

That one motion was composed of Robt. H. Rinehart, chairman; Colonel Lewis, O. H. Baum, R. Engelking, C. F. Morse, J. M. Duran, W. H. Case. These committees then retired and Goen asked anyone desiring to attend either of the conventions to report to the committee on delegations.

El Paso county is entitled to one vote at each of the conventions, but may send four delegates and, if desired, four alternates to each.

The committees later reported, their reports were accepted and the convention adjourned.

UNDERWOOD DENIES HE FAVORS HARMON

Says It Is Impossible to Keep Up With all the Misrepresentations.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, majority leader of the house today declared that his presidential candidacy was not in the interest of governor Harmon or any candidate other than himself. This was in reply to a statement of William J. Bryan in a speech at Chillicothe, O., last night, that he had heard that the Underwood delegates chosen in Georgia and Florida were in reality Harmon men.

"It is impossible for a man in public life," said Mr. Underwood, "to keep up with all the misrepresentations made about him by his friends to say that there is no warrant in fact for the statement made by Mr. Bryan. I am making the race for the presidential nomination in an honest endeavor to secure it for myself and my candidacy is not and never has been in the interest of governor Harmon or any other candidate."

"Georgia, Florida and Alabama declared for me in a presidential primary election and this was the expression of the desire of thousands of honest voters at the polls for me and none for any other man."
